The recipients for the 2019 President's Award for Art & Activism are L.J. Roberts and Aruna D'Souza.

Join us for the celebration! The awards will be presented on Saturday February 16, 2019. The Awards celebration will be held at the New York Institute of Technology (NYIT), 1871 Broadway at 61st Street, New York, NY 10023. The gala events will kick-off with a ticketed cocktail reception from 5:30–7:00pm. The ticketed reception will include three food stations, butlered treats, an open bar, and the opportunity to congratulate the awardees. The Awards ceremony (free and open to the public) will take place from 7:30–9:00pm.

The WCA's Lifetime Achievement Awards are one of the most prestigious awards given to women in the visual arts. Over the last 37 years, 195 awards have been presented to women artists, historians, educators, arts administrators, and museum professionals. Isabel Bishop, Selma Burke, Alice Neel, Louise Nevelson, and Georgia O'Keeffe were the first recipients of the Lifetime Achievement Awards. Recent recipients have included Tina Dunkley, Whitney Chadwick, Beverly Buchanan, Sylvia Sleigh, Tritobia Hayes Benjamin, and Sheila Levrant de Bretteville.

The President's Award for Art & Activism is presented each year to emerging or mid-career women whose life and work exemplifies WCA's mission of creating community through art, education and social activism. The award anticipates a lifetime of achievement for its recipients. Recent recipients have included: Catherine Opie, Juana Guzman, Mary Davalos, and Susan Fischer Sterling.
