Join our Community of Women in the Arts!

2013 WCA Membership Drive

It's October, and time to RENEW your membership for 2013!

It's also a great time to invite your friends and acquaintances to join the Women's Caucus for Art, one of the largest national organizations for women in the arts. You will be in the company of more than 1,200 women in the arts, and luminaries such as Suzanne Lacy, Lucy Lippard, Yayoi Kusama, and Carolee Schneemann, all of whom are lifetime members and recipients of WCA's Lifetime Achievement Awards.

New members have the benefit of starting their 2013 membership right now....and enjoy up to three months of free membership. To join or renew your membership go to www.nationalwca.org/applicants/application.php or sign up through your chapter.

Dear {FIRST_NAME|WCA Member},

Thank you for your 2012 membership in the Women's Caucus for Art. This was a special year, a year in which we celebrated 40 years as a non-profit and membership organization that showcases women in the arts. We celebrated in Los Angeles with five packed days of art-viewing, making connections with women in other chapters, attending opening receptions, and honoring recipients of the Lifetime Achievement, President's Art & Activism and Media Awards. We celebrated across the country and abroad with events and exhibitions including Man-Up in Michigan, Honoring Women's Rights in Salinas, Beverly Buchanan's exhibition, Home -

Building Community in 2013

Participate!

Attend our 2013

Building Community

conference

and be part of the New York art scene. Meet artists and art historians from all over the country and share ideas and experiences. Be there in person to honor Tina Dunkley, Artis

Lane, Joan Semmel and Susana

Torruella Leval for their Lifetime

Achievement Awards and Leanne

Stella for the President's Art &

Activism Award. Submit work to Space Place Memory in St. Louis, and the Woman + Body exhibit in Korea. The Little Red Traveling Journal, which started with a hope and a dare, is still making its rounds across chapters, its small pages filling up with gorgeous art. Many more exciting offerings are on tap for the rest of the year and into 2013.

Whether you belong to a chapter or are a member-at-large; whether you're an artist, arts academic, student, curator, or an enthusiastic supporter; whether you're an emerging artist or a well-established professional, WCA is a place you can call "home."

Renew now, and remember to invite your friends!
www.nationalwca.org/applicants/application/php.

Bound and Diaspora at member rates. Join a special interest caucus such as Eco-art, Jewish Women Artists Network, International, or Young Women's and plan an event or exhibit. Submit a proposal for a future panel at the College Art Association. Let loose your creativity and design an art edition of Artlines. Join the national or chapter board and learn non-profit leadership skills. Represent WCA at the United Nations through the International Caucus. Participate in art activism with our "I CAN/WE CAN" collaboration project with A Window Between Worlds and Eve Ensler's One Billion Rising. WCA...it's your community!
